MCTXSheriff Looking for Released Inmate

Original Press Release

On December 12, 2018, due to a clerical error by Montgomery County Sheriff's Office Jail personnel, an inmate was released from the Montgomery County Jail in the place of another inmate with the same last name. Edward Manning, a 30 year old black male, was released from jail at about 10:50 P.M. on a personal recognizance (PR) bond. The name of the inmate that was supposed to be released was Jeffrey Manning. Deputies with Montgomery County Sheriff's Office have made contact with Edward Manning via cell phone, to turn himself in, but he refused. An order to remand was issued for Edward Manning and law enforcement in Montgomery and Harris Counties are actively looking for him. Edward was originally arrested on Felony Assault-Family Violence and was eligible for release with a bond of $20,000.

At this time, the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office Internal Affairs Unit is conducting an internal review of the release of Edward Manning as well as its policies and procedures.
